

MEXICANS PAY FOR RAID WITH LIVES

Ten Are Killed for Alleged Complicity in Wrecking Passenger Train

HAVE CLUE TO OTHERS

No Secret is Made that More Would Be Killed if Civilian Posses Captured Them

CIVIL OFFICERS POWERLESS

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Oct. 19.—Mexicans today paid with their lives for alleged complicity in last night's wrecking of a St. Louis, Brownsville & Mexico passenger train on the outskirts of Brownsville, which resulted in the killing of three Americans and the wounding of four others.

Peace officers said they had clues to other Mexicans connected with the robberies. No secret was made that more would be killed if civilian posses capture them.

Mexicans Attack Train.

The passenger train was held up late Monday night at Olmito, a station six miles from this city. A rail had been displaced and the train went into the ditch whereupon it was attacked by a considerable force of armed Mexicans. There was considerable shooting.

Civil officers here were in most cases powerless to prevent summary executions of Mexicans, for many of the posses were composed mostly of men who worked independently of civil or military authority.

The military authorities under their present instructions have no power except in cases of actual fighting on the river front, in which case they may take charge, temporarily, of directing the operations of any civilians who may be near the scene of the fight. In order to make search or even arrests, except in emergencies, the military authorities have had to call for the aid of civil officers, who alone have the right of search and arrest.

Bring Five into Brownsville.

Five prisoners were brought to the Brownsville jail today, where they were believed to be safe from violence but the Brownsville jail is the only institution of its kind in this valley and the chances of a suspected Mexican reaching here during the present degree of excitement are small.

The first Mexican killed by civilians as an act of reprisal was an unidentified young man, a passenger on the wrecked train, who was accused of revealing the hiding place of Dr. E. S. McCain, deputy state health officer here, who took refuge in the lavatory of the car when the bandits began firing. Sheriff W. T. Vann of Brownsville, denied reports of this Mexican's death but tonight it developed that posses killed the man after Sheriff Vann left the scene of the wreck. This Mexican was apparently threatened by the train robbers because of his unusually fair complexion but was not molested after he told him where two of the gringos whom they were hunting, had hidden.

Only Bare Facts Obtainable.

Only the bare facts of the killing of other Mexicans today were obtainable as the posses were careful not to give out details.

The second Mexican killed was alleged to be a "partner" of the young man on the train. The meaning of the word "partner" was not made clear. Four Mexicans were hanged to trees at various points and four others were shot. The most reliable information indicated that these shootings were on or very near the banks of the Rio Grande where the closest watch for Mexicans was maintained for a distance of 100 miles, as the crow flies, up and down the river. This watch extended much farther than the bandits could have travelled in one day.

United States cavalrymen for several miles chased a young Mexican who appeared in the Los Indios district today, about thirty miles up the river from the place of the robbery, with his horse dripping from apparent hard riding. He was brought to Fort Brown here, where army officers questioned him closely. They said his stories were conflicting but that he gave no information to connect him with last night's robbery. Finally the officers turned him over to the civil authorities here. The officers said they did not want the man killed.

Soldiers Join in Search.

Probably fifteen hundred cavalrymen and infantry today joined in searching for traces of the bandits for a distance of 30 miles up the American side of the river. Hundreds of civilians led by scores of deputies joined in the work. No killing was done by soldiers. Civil and military authorities today did not agree on whether any of the bandits in the robbery had crossed from the Mexican side of the river. Military officers believed the raid was made up from the American side. Louis D. LaRosa, whom two passengers claimed they recognized among the robbers, has several times been seen at Matamoros and Amer-

THOMPSON MAY ASK CERMAK'S IMPEACHMENT

CHICAGO MAYOR GIVES HIS ATTITUDE TOWARD SALOON CLOSING

Twice Asserts That Cermark Should Resign His Public Office or Cease His Opposition to the Observance of the Law—Presides at Council Meeting.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Mayor Thompson returned today from the celebration of Chicago day at the Panama-Pacific exposition where he went following his order to enforce the law closing the saloons on Sunday.

The mayor presided at a meeting of the council tonight.

A large crowd gathered at the city hall in anticipation of some action on the mayor's closing order. Many of the number were labor leaders interested in the appointment of seven members of the board of education, which appointments were expected to be announced by the mayor at tonight's session of the council.

Spectators' Gallery Filled.

Detectives and uniformed police in considerable numbers were posted outside the council chamber and in the corridors of the building and by seven o'clock the spectators' gallery was filled. Complaints were loud from those who could not gain admittance to the chamber. John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, charged that the galleries had been packed against union labor men. The Sunday closing question came up with the presentation of an order by Alderman Cullerton directing the corporation counsel to submit as to the right of patrons of restaurants with bars to drink liquor on Sunday purchased on Saturday. He criticized the mayor for "enforcing a long dead law while other laws were being openly violated."

The order was sent to the license commission.

Makes Speech at Theatre.

On his arrival in the morning the mayor was escorted to a theatre where he made a speech. At a luncheon and later meeting at a hotel, he again made a speech on his attitude toward saloon closing. At each meeting he said that Anton J. Cermark, head of the United Societies, chief bailiff of the municipal court and the political leaders of the liquor interests, should resign his public office or cease his opposition to the observance of the law.

The Mayor said the attention of the chief justice and the judges of the municipal court should be called to Cermark's activity and hinted that his impeachment as bailiff might be asked.

HEAD OF GARMENT WORKERS ON STAND BEFORE STRIKE COMMITTEE

Hillman Declares Wages Received by Young Women in Garment Trade Are Insufficient to Support Them.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Sidney Hillman, national president of the National Association of Garment Workers, testifying today before the special aldermanic strike committee, declared that wages received by young women in the garment trade were so low that it was impossible for the girls to make a living without some other means of support.

President Hillman further stated that there was a continual cutting of wages; that ninety per cent. of the employees in this industry are now on strike and that the employees are under the absolute authority of the shop foreman, sometimes in ways tending to immorality.

"Mother" Jones, noted labor advocate, occupied the witness stand before the committee during the day. She testified as to the history of strikes in this country during the last forty years and the part the working people have taken in them.

Four girl witnesses corroborated the testimony of Hillman concerning the treatment of girl employees by foremen. One of the girls asserted that she worked from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. during busy seasons and that in slack seasons she made only $3 a week.

FALLS FROM WINDOW; DIES.

Decatur, Ill., Oct. 19.—Warned by brother lodge men that it was a long ways to the ground, T. L. Antrim, a well known resident of Decatur, persisted in sitting in an open window enjoying a quiet smoke. A little later his body was found on a platform three stories below. Death was almost instantaneous.

ARMY OFFICERS HAD ASKED FOR HIS ARREST BY CARRANZA OFFICIALS.

Two army officers had asked for his arrest about two weeks ago, announced officially that De La Rosa had a bandit camp on the Mexican side about thirty miles above Brownsville. It was said they were trying to capture him. Since that announcement nothing was heard of him until last night. The death of Dr. McCain aggravated the feeling among Americans more than any previous incident in the three months of border disturbances.

Fire Through Doors.

Dr. McCain was shot in the abdomen when the bandits learned he had taken refuge in the car lavatory and fired through the doors.

Harry J. Wallis, prominent in Texas politics, was wounded slightly at the same time. The four injured, three of them by bullet wounds and the fourth by scalds when the train was wrecked were said tonight to be on the way to recovery.

NEW JERSEY VOTES AGAINST SUFFRAGE

Majority Against Women's Appeal for Ballot is Ex- pected to Be 50,000

LEADERS ARE UNDAUNTED

Will Start With New Plans In- tent Upon Securing Right to Vote for Presidential Electors

ONE COUNTY FAVORS ISSUE

JERSEY CITY, Oct. 19.—New Jersey registered at the polls today an emphatic "No" to women's appeal for the ballot. Indications shortly after midnight were that the white and yellow banner of "Votes for Women" had fluttered down to defeat in each of the state's 21 counties. The majority against adoption of the constitutional amendment to enfranchise women is expected to be between 50,000 and 60,000.

To Start With New Plans.

Undaunted by the overwhelming tide against them, however, suffrage leaders announced tonight that they would start tomorrow with new plans, intent upon pledging candidates for the legislature to permit them to vote next spring for presidential electors. Candidates for the legislature have been nominated by both big parties and will come before the voters for election Nov. 2.

The defeat of woman suffrage was conceded at 10:30 o'clock tonight by Mrs. E. F. Peckert, president of the New Jersey State Woman Suffrage association. Her admission was borne out by unofficial early returns from every section of the state which indicated that the majority against suffrage was decisive.

Hudson and Essex counties, where the fight centered, apparently had given decisive majorities against the amendment. Passaic county apparently was close, with unofficial returns from 54 of the 117 election districts giving 4,707 votes for the amendment and 4,896 against it.

Wilson's Precinct Against Issue.

The city of Trenton and Mercer county early returns indicated voted against adoption of the amendment by a large majority. President Wilson's own precinct the seventh election district of Princeton borough voted against suffrage by a majority of more than two to one, the figures being, for 64, against 150.

The only county of the 21 in which appeared to be certain to go for suffrage was Cape May. Early returns indicated that the majority for the amendment there would approximate 200.

Burlington county was claimed for suffrage by the women leaders.

In some sections of the state early returns indicated that the vote against suffrage was more than 2 to 1.

Returns came in much more rapidly than had been expected. The tide was all one way—against woman suffrage. Leaders at the headquarters of the suffrage association here realized early in the evening that only a landslide in the rural sections could save the day for them. Late returns showed that instead of the hoped for landslide the country communities had in many cases voted against the amendment. This was notably true in Essex county where nine of Newark's suburbs arraigned themselves solidly against suffrage. Although decried the suffrage workers have not given up the fight. Coupled with admission of defeat Mrs. Peckert embodied a promise of a renewed fight next spring.

"Although we apparently have lost the election in this state for woman suffrage," she said, "this will not end the fight. We feel much encouraged by the great number of votes received and this will impel us to continue the battle in this state."

"Instead of quitting as our opponents have said we would, we have new plans in view. When the New Jersey legislature opens next spring we will present a solid front for an amendment to the state constitution to give the women the right in New Jersey to participate in the presidential election."

DISCUSSION OF WAR IN EUROPE CAUSES TROUBLE IN CONVENTION

ALTON, Ill., Oct. 19.—Discussion of the war in Europe caused trouble in the convention of the Illinois Federation of Labor here today. Congressman Clyde Travenner said that persons who sailed on English ships did so at their own risk. Delegate John C. Harding of Chicago, answered with an attack on Germany. The disorder was so great that it was fifteen minutes before President Walker could restore order. When he did procure quiet, he declared there should be no more discussion of the war.

SPEAKERS CHARGE OHIO IS 'DEEP IN THE RUT OF INDIFFERENCE

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 19.—Charges that Ohio is deep in the rut of indifference were made by speakers here today at the opening meeting of the Ohio federation of women's clubs, whose 50,000 members are represented by 500 delegates. Specialists presented the problems of the feeble minded, statewide prohibition, public leisure, good roads and the socialization of the public schools.

"Ohio has no time for Dante and Browning until these vital matters are adjusted," declared Miss Lillian E. Stearns, Librarian of Milwaukee, who spoke on the prevention of crime and the problem of public leisure.

"Ohio women must put away their knitting and tating until they have provided substitutes for her feeble minded. Knitting may be well enough when there is nothing more important before the women."

EIGHT NATIONS ACT WITH UNITED STATES

Formally Recognize Carranza as Chief Executive to Mexican Republic

TO ACCREDIT DIPLOMAT

Henry Prather Fletcher Practi- cally Has Been Decided on as Next Ambassador to Mexico

ARREDONDO VISITS LANSING

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Venus-tiano Carranza was formally recognized today as the chief executive of the republic of Mexico by the governments of the United States, Brazil, Chile, Argentina, Guatemala, Bolivia, Uruguay, Colombia and Nicaragua.

Diplomatic representatives of the first six Latin-American countries selected in the order of their rank here, were parties to the Pan-American conference on Mexican affairs but the action of Colombia and Nicaragua indicates that all the other republics of the western hemisphere will follow the lead of their sister nations in extending recognition.

Practically Decide on Fletcher.

Henry Prather Fletcher, at present American ambassador to Chile, practically has been decided upon as the next ambassador to Mexico. Although a republican in politics he was elevated from the rank of minister to ambassador by President Wilson after a long and successful record in the diplomatic service. He was educated for the law and practiced in Chambersburg, Pa.

He enlisted with the rough riders and later served in the Philippines. He began as a second secretary to the American legation in Cuba in 1902 and has been in the diplomatic service ever since, serving in China, Portugal and Chile.

Letter of Recognition.

Secretary Lansing's letter of recognition which was sent to Eliseo Arredondo, personal representative of Carranza, referred only to the intention to accredit an ambassador soon. Its text was as follows:

"Washington, D. C., Oct. 19, 1915.

"My dear Arredondo:—It is my pleasure to inform you that the President of the United States takes this opportunity of extending recognition to the de facto government of Mexico of which General Venustiano Carranza is the chief executive.

"The government of the United States will be pleased to receive formally in Washington a diplomatic representative of the de facto government as soon as it shall please General Carranza to appoint such representative; and reciprocally, the government of the United States will accredit to the de facto government a diplomatic representative as soon as the president has had opportunity to designate such representative.

"I should appreciate it if you could find it possible to communicate this information to General Carranza at your earliest convenience.

"Very sincerely yours,

"ROBERT LANSING,

"Secretary of State."

This document was delivered without ceremony at noon to Mr. Arredondo at the Mexican embassy building. Shortly afterwards Mr. Arredondo called at the state department for a conference. He spent half an hour with the secretary discussing Mexican affairs.

Arredondo Issues Statements.

Mr. Arredondo issued the following formal statement tonight:

"Recognition of the government of Mr. Carranza is a triumph of Pan-American policy and without doubt will bring about very soon the re-establishment of peace and normal conditions in Mexico. For this, her sister republics and their worthy representatives here deserve sincere and fraternal felicitation as this act of justice has been done for one of the republics which has been and shall continue to be an integral part of the Pan-American concert.

"Foreigners have and will continue to have the protection to which they are entitled by international law and existing treaties in accordance with international amity. Foreign capital will be welcomed and very soon a decree of amnesty which Mr. Carranza is preparing will be issued that will permit the Mexicans whose presence in Mexico will not constitute a vital menace to the peace and consolidation of the government to return from the exile which has caused them to suffer on account of the civil war."

POSTPONE CHARLETON TRIAL.

Como, Italy, Oct. 19.—(Via Paris). The trial of Porter Charlton on the charge of having murdered his wife was continued today. A large part of the session was given over to expert testimony in regard to the mental condition of the prisoner. Depositions were read from the testimony taken in the United States during the extradition proceedings against Charlton.

Later, it was decided to postpone the trial to Oct. 22, owing to illness of chief counsel for Charlton.

FOURTEEN ARE KILLED IN EXPLOSION AT MINE

CAR OF POWDER AT COLLAR OF SHAFT EXPLODES

Eight are Seriously Injured, One of Whom Probably Will Die—Many Bodies are Blown into Fragments—Cause of Blast Unknown.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 19.—Fourteen men were killed at the Granite Mountain mine of the North Butte mining company at 1:30 o'clock today by an explosion of 500 pounds of giant powder. Eight other men were seriously injured; one of them Ed Bray, a silt boss, probably will die.

The cause of the explosion has not been determined. Three men were engaged in lowering powder to the 2,800 foot level. One car containing about 500 pounds of giant powder was at the collar of the shaft waiting to be lowered, after which a number of bosses and miners were to go below. Five of the men were waiting in the "dog house" a small room near the shaft, when suddenly the explosion occurred.

John Davey, the only one of the three at the surface to survive the explosion, left the car to get a timber 100 feet back from the shaft. He was thrown to the ground by the explosion but was not badly hurt.

The blast swept away the frame structure in which the men were waiting at the shaft, together with the air shaft beside the steel gallow frame. Two painters were at work on this airshaft. Neither was killed but both were injured. Many of the bodies were in fragments.

John D. Pope, general manager of the North Butte company, said tonight he had no theory as to the cause of the explosion.

"To the best of my knowledge," said Mr. Pope, "no one was on the car of powder when it exploded. There were between ten and twenty boxes of powder on the car. If there were ten boxes that means that there were 500 pounds of giants."

DUNNE GRANTS REPRIEVE TO NEGRO SENTENCED TO HANG FRIDAY

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 19.—Failing to receive assurance satisfactory to him that the hanging of Elston Scott next Friday at Murphysboro would be conducted in a proper manner and in the presence of few witnesses, Governor Dunne late today granted the condemned man a reprieve of thirty days.

The action came after the governor had received a communication from Sheriff White of Jackson county which evaded saying definitely just how many persons would be permitted to witness the hanging. The sheriff replied in the words of the statute which authorizes the county executive to assemble at a hanging as many deputies and constables as he deems "expedient."

Governor Dunne was displeased at the publicity which attended a hanging last week in Murphysboro. The expectation at the state house was that the present reprieve would be repeated until assurance was received that there would be no undue publicity at the hanging of Scott, who is a negro sentenced to death for the murder of Clara Dalton.

SUPREME COURT TAKES FERGUS SUIT UNDER ADVISEMENT

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 19.—The Illinois Supreme court late this afternoon took under advisement the J. B. Fergus appropriation injunction suit, in which Fergus, a resident of Chicago, seeks to enjoin the paying of the state of large appropriations by the last general assembly.

The case was brought to the supreme court on an appeal from the circuit court of Sangamon county where Judge Creighton sustained in a general way that Fergus' contention that many of the appropriations attacked were illegally passed by the legislature.

Interested attorneys have made a request to the court for an early decision, and it is expected that an opinion will be handed down at the present term of court.

ENLIGHTENMENT IS NOT FORTHCOMING

British Public is Not Sup- plied With Desired Information

PREMIER ASQUITH ILL

Forces on Gallipoli Peninsula Have Not Been Weakened for the Balkan Campaign

MAKE NEW DIPLOMATIC MOVE

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Owing to the illness of Premier Asquith and the delicate negotiations which are proceeding between the Allies, the enlightenment which today's meeting of the house of commons was expected to throw on the Balkan operations was not forthcoming.

There were more than a hundred questions in the house on the orders of the day, dealing chiefly with near eastern affairs, the Dardanelles and the method of recruiting men for the army but while the ministers answered many of them, in no case was supplied the information which the public was anxiously awaiting.

Silence Recruiting Controversy.

It is generally agreed, however, that the controversy over recruiting has been silenced. The conscriptionists, or a majority of them, have decided to give Lord Derby's new scheme a fair trial.

It is understood the voluntary system is receiving its last trial and, despite the opposition throughout the country, those favoring national service for all will endeavor to force its adoption should Lord Derby fail in his efforts.

So far as the Dardanelles and the Balkans are concerned, a good deal of the pessimism which reigned a week ago has disappeared. It is believed that instead of any idea existing of abandoning the attempt to open the straits and sea route to Constantinople the appointment of Gen. Monro means a more strenuous effort and that when the right moment comes the Italian navy, if not the Italian troops will co-operate.

Have Not Weakened Forces.

It is known that the forces on Gallipoli have not been weakened for the Balkan campaign and while the task is difficult, the majority of the British public are confident it will ultimately be accomplished. In the Balkans the Austro-German and Bulgarian armies continue to claim progress against the Serbians but, except in the north where the Serbs are being forced back into the mountains, the various reports do not go far toward clarifying the situation. The Bulgarians have cut the railway between Uskup and Nish so it is likely, except in the extreme south, where they have the support of the Anglo-French troops landed at Saloniki, the Serbs are falling back to stronger natural positions. Istip and Kotehana, it is said, have already been evacuated.

Italy Declares War on Bulgaria.

Italy, which singularly enough is still technically at peace, with Germany has declared war on Bulgaria and Russia is expected to follow her example almost immediately. When this formality is completed, it is possible the action which Italy and Russia intend to take in the Balkans will be defined.

The allies also have made a new diplomatic move with respect to Greece. The British and Russian ministers having delivered a note to Athens explaining that the allies do not agree with the Greek government's interpretation of the Greco-Serbian treaty and notifying Premier Zaimis of their intention to land more troops at Saloniki. It is not expected, however, that anything but allied success will have any influence with Greece or, for that matter with Roumania.

Russia is trying for this in Galicia and Volhynia, where General Ivanoff has won several local victories and is keeping the Austro-Germans busy. Otherwise interest in the eastern front centers in the north where the Germans attacked south of Riga and the Russians to the south and west of Dvinsk. Both sides lay claims to gains.

Comparative quiet prevails in the west.

According to a bill that was passed at the last state legislature the clerks of the various villages and cities must record all deaths and births instead of the old method of having the registration in the office of the county clerk. The new system will make it easier for the doctors, undertakers and others who make out the blanks, in that they will not have to visit the county clerk but can make the registration of a death or birth in the particular town. State officials have made it known that there are some portions of the new law which they do not fully understand. The original framers of the bill intended statistics of this kind to be in charge of the state board of health.

Protect the Waterfowl

A bulletin recently issued by the department of agriculture, shows that there has been an extraordinary increase in the waterfowl population of the United States during the past two years and this increase, the government officials assert, is due almost entirely to the passage by congress of the so-called migratory bird law. But even with this encouraging increase in some waterfowl it is not more than 10 percent of number that existed before the recent extraordinary increase in rapid transportation facilities and a concerted movement has been put on foot by organizations representing sportsmen, farmers, conservationists and stock breeders to have the provisions of the migratory bird law extended in every possible way. The state of Maine estimates the annual income from its game resources at $13,000,000, of which about $650,000 can safely be allotted to the return of migratory waterfowl and Oregon values its waterfowl at $1,000,000 annually.

It's What You Save.

Every young man who is earning money for himself, ought to lay aside a portion for the "rainy day" and for that financial start which he expects to make in his life sometime. And after all it is not what you make but what you save that insures a competency, in later years. The parent who has his boy put a few cents in the little saving bank on the shelf is teaching the lad something that will be of inestimable value to him. It is stated that about eleven percent of the population of the United States have to their credit in savings bank deposits four and one-half billion dollars. Sixty-five years ago only one and one-tenth per cent of the people had bank accounts. The honor of having the largest individual deposits belongs to the natives of Switzerland, with $86.17 to his credit. Denmark comes next with $66 per capita. Hollanders and Germans have about the same as the United States. On the Atlantic and Pacific coasts the average bank deposits are $499 in each case. In the middle west the average is about $360, west of Missouri it is $234, and in the south $197.

War Songs—Past and Present.

The death in Boston the other day of Luther O. Emerson, the song and hymn writer, recalls the interesting fact that he was the author of the famous civil war song, "We Are Coming, Father Abraham," which is said to have been of great help to President Lincoln in his calls for volunteers, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. It was inspiring and carried with it the note of victory which counts for so much when there is a wavering in the hearts and minds of the most loyal. In its way this war song did as much for the Union cause as "Uncle Tom's Cabin," did in the freeing of the slaves.

A wise person of the past once said that he did not care who made the laws for his country if he could be allowed to write the songs. There is no doubt of the power that popular songs have over the imagination and the feelings of men, especially in time of national peril. Every war produces its crop of this kind, and if the air happens to be light and catchy it lives long after the event which inspired it has passed into history.

The civil war was especially prolific in the sort of songs that appealed to the multitude. The composition might have been crude and the technique faulty in some instances but as long as they contained the proper sentiment and went with a swing, the people, and especially the soldiers on the tented field, were quick to accept them. In the beginning of the war between the sections the confederates were singing "Dixie" and the unionists the "Star-Spangled Banner," but later, and even after the war, we had "John Brown's Body," "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," and "When Johnny Comes Marching Home."

At the outset of the European war the soldiers among the allies got much comfort and satisfaction from "Tipperary," now replaced in some quarters by "Onward, Christian Soldiers."

A study of war songs, past and present, is exceedingly interesting, especially when considered from the standpoint of their psychological effect.

FROM THE EDUCATOR'S NOTEBOOK.

The inauguration today of Dr. John Henry McCracken as the ninth president of Lafayette College brings together another gathering of scholars and educators of the East and Middle West. Following so soon after the inauguration of Dr. Henry Noble McCracken at Vassar, today's induction ceremony is particularly interesting in the educational world, through the fact that the McCracken family is the most famous in America for college presidents. Dr. Henry M. McCracken, the father of the two new college heads, is Chancellor Emeritus of New York University. The ceremonies today will begin an educational conference conducted by the alumni. At the banquet tonight, President Hibben of Princeton will speak, and other educators will be heard.

The great problem of America is how to conserve and organize the forces of democracy. The schoolhouse is the one true answer. The common school plant represents the largest single investment of the people's money, yet it is operated only for a scant seven hours a day for an average of 144 days in the year. This is the summary of the public school question as seen by Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of President Wilson. There have been many previous opinions along this line, but few persons have come forth so practically as Miss Wilson. She has gone out to sing in public, to inaugurate a fund to promote the use of public schools as community centers. Tonight she is completing her tour in Cleveland. "What we need to do is to operate the school house plant at full capacity," she tells her friends, "making each building a headquarters for citizenship, an all-year clubhouse for the whole people."

Not the least interesting of the many wide divergences in opinions on the "vote for women" is the split in the ranks of the educators. Down in New Jersey, where they are voting today on the question of franchise for women, with no less a character than President Wilson casting his vote in favor of the measure, Princeton University educators are entirely at odds on the measure. President Hibben joins with his predecessor in advocating the enfranchisement of women, but three of his deans take the opposite view. Dean William F. Kage of the faculty, Dr. Andrew F. West, dean of the graduate college, and Dr. Howard McGlenahan, dean of the college, all express themselves as opposed to the measure. Former dean of the faculty Henry B. Fine stands with the other deans. The "Antis" are supported also by Prof. Philip Marshall Brown, head of the international law department and Prof. Henry Ford, authority on politics.

Washington University, in St. Louis, opens this week a night school to enable the shop girl and the busy man to get a college education. The evening courses are an outgrowth of the Saturday extension courses, which have been very popular. The step taken by Washington University marks a big advance in education in St. Louis.

To honor the first schoolmaster in Pennsylvania, a monument will be unveiled at Skipback, Montgomery county, that state, next Saturday. The first school is credited to Christopher Dock, who began teaching at Skipback in 1714. He was the first American to write on pedagogy, which fact calls for national recognition. Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania will make the principal address on Saturday, and Dr. Nathan C. Schaeffer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will also speak.

The annual conference of the Association of Urban Universities will be held in Cincinnati next month. This new association plans to study university problems in municipal communities. Many professional men from all parts of the country have been invited to consult with the educators as to the correct steps to take to make the universities more effective in serving their own communities. Dr. Charles W. Dabney, of the University of Cincinnati, is president of the association.

Egypt has 24 schools of higher education, technical and agricultural, and over 4,000 students are enrolled. They are the most eager students of the Near East.

Philadelphia—That Christmas is not far off in the minds of boys and girls of this and other cities of the United States is evidenced by the flood of petitions that are daily pouring into the name of Miss Olive May Wilson, the "Santa Claus girl." The work of cheering up neglected children at a time when other more fortunate children are enjoying the Christmas season was begun three years ago by Miss Wilson, and has increased in proportions she little dreamed of at the outset. From a distribution of a few hundred toys at first, the work has grown to such an extent that last year 17,250 gifts were sent out. Miss Wilson's work has attracted attention throughout the United States and has the approval and commendation of Vice-President Marshall and other national figures.

New Rochelle, N. Y.—With the object of cutting down the cost of living, improving the schools and providing clean amusement for the citizens, two leading women of this city are campaigning for office. Miss Anna L. Braje, a Vassar graduate, is candidate for the City Council on the Socialist ticket. The second woman candidate is Mrs. Helen Metcalfe Kobba, who seeks to become supervisor in the second ward. She is the daughter of Dr. Francis Metcalfe of New York, was educated in Paris and in Italy, and is a painter of note. Her husband is running for Mayor on the Socialist ticket. Both the women candidates are hustlers, and are putting up strong campaigns on a platform of municipal ownership of water works, railways and gas plants.

Washington—The lagging gaiety of the capital city is the reason assigned for the new fads and fancies of the diplomatic set. When so many of the government men and the diplomats are worried over the important developments of the times their women folks have turned to the domestic arts, long neglected and ignored. Miss Henrietta R. Morales, daughter of the minister from Panama, is taking a course with a view to establishing a domestic science college in her home city. Mme. Pezet, wife of the minister of Peru, is enrolled in a social course at a local cooking school, and she finds there is much to be learned about this delicacy of the modern table. Mrs. Oscar Underwood is also studying the domestic arts, and Miss Margaret Draper, god daughter of the Dowager queen of Italy, and who has a fortune of six millions, is being complimented on her pies. Indeed it is a domestic Washington, the ball-room being neglected during these eventful days.

Raleigh, N. C.—To head a hospital out in the thinly-settled section of this state, where the only means of transportation is the saddle-horse is the appointment recently given to a woman doctor. She is Dr. Ellen Giles, a graduate of the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania. Her hospital is the Alto Pass Hospital where she has charge of a 20-bed hospital, newly equipped and a modern operating room. On many of her calls she has to travel a distance of 20 miles each way up and down precipitous trails.

Washington—"Sister Beatrice," the Florence Nightingale of the French battle front, was a recent visitor in Washington. She came to see M. Jules Jusserand, the French ambassador, and is now in Canada to confer with General Hughes about the medical requirements at the war front during the coming winter. "Sister Beatrice" is Mrs. Beatrice Bartlett, of the Medico-Militaire Francaise. She is the only woman connected with the service. She has the absolute entree to every quarter of the fighting zone of the entente allies. She wears a distinctive military habit that assures her instant recognition anywhere in the fighting lines. This habit is composed of a purple and white head-dress, a white gown and an enormous purple military cape. Since a year ago she has become a national figure with the fighting armies, as a rapid and effective organizer of hospitals, and manager of supplies.

SEES IN CITIZEN MILITARY CAMP AN OMEN OF BETTER PREPAREDNESS

Eight Hours of Stiff Drill Work a Day Convinces "Rookies" of Folly of Making an Army in a Day, Says Harrison Dickson.

That the cause of preparedness will be in great measure promoted by the citizen military camps in Ft. Sheridan and Plattsburg, N. Y., seems the general opinion of all attending and Harrison Dickson, sergeant in Co. B, 5th regiment, who returned to Jacksonville Monday after attending the Ft. Sheridan camp, heartily concurs in this opinion. Eight hours of drill for the greater part of four weeks and instruction in various lines of military activity has not failed to demonstrate to "rookies" enrolled the truth of the saying that an army can not be created in a day.

The six hundred men in the vacation camp were given regular drill, each forenoon for four hours. Elective work was substituted for the afternoon drill Oct. 1 to 9. In this elective work were included experience with cavalry, field guns, machine gun operation, signal corps work, medical corps, topography and advanced infantry training. Mr. Dickson elected the last named as the most in line with his present position in the national guard.

Capt. L. P. Owen was sergeant in the military camp and though compelled to leave before the full term was complete to remove his family to Springfield, his record was of the best. Mr. Dickson was reported as making the highest score at rifle practice in the camp.

The camp was under direction of Capt. Raymond Sheldon of the regular army. Meals were taken in the Ft. Sheridan gymnasium, which was fitted up for a mess hall, and food was good and of ample variety. Each recruit paid a fee of twenty-five dollars as well as defraying expenses of transportation and furnishing his own uniform. Tents, guns, and other equipment were furnished by the government.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich. — "I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong." — Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

DANIELS MAKES NAVY ESTIMATES PUBLIC

PROPOSE TO SPEND $502,476,214 WITHIN FIVE YEARS.

Contemplates Construction of One Hundred Eighty-six Vessels, the Last of Which Will Be Built and in Commission Late in 1924.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Official estimates of the navy's part of the administration's billion dollar National defense program were made public tonight by Secretary Daniels. They show that within five years it is proposed to spend $502,476,214 for construction of new ships, development of aircraft and the creation of a huge reserve of ammunition and guns for the navy.

The five year building program contemplates construction of ten dreadnoughts, six battle cruisers, ten scout cruisers, fifty destroyers, fifteen seagoing submarines, 85 coast defense submarines, four gunboats, one hospital ship, two ammunition ships, 2 fuel oil ships and one repair ship.

The last of these vessels will be built and in commission late in 1924.

To Spend $6,000,000 on Aviation. On naval aviation it is proposed to expend $6,000,000 during the five years and on reserve munitions $25,000,000. These figures, with the addition of $48,518,127 for completion of ships already authorized or now under construction make up the total of more than half a billion dollars to be expended upon the navy in addition to the regular budget which approximates $100,000,000 a year.

Secretary Daniels will recommend this winter the addition to the navy of 7,500 bluejackets, 2,500 apprentices and 1,500 marines, a total of 11,500 men. With this addition to personnel, it is estimated that all battleships not more than fifteen years old, destroyers and submarines built within twelve years, half of the cruisers and all of the gunboats and necessary fleet of auxiliaries can be manned and an adequate reserve be maintained for vessels on the reserve list.

Proposes Additional Officers.

To officer the additional force of marines, the secretary will recommend appointment of one additional brigadier general, two colonels, two lieutenant colonels, six majors, one colonel, an assistant quarter-master, fourteen captains, fourteen first lieutenants, thirteen second lieutenants and twenty-two warrant officers.

Additional naval officers would be obtained by increasing the number of midshipmen at the academy at Annapolis by not less than 250 men. For the aviation corps, Secretary Daniels will recommend establishment of a special service to which civilian aviators can be appointed. The 1917 naval estimates to be presented to congress this winter will total $217,652,173, an increase of $67,990,368 over last year's appropriation. Of the increase $57,003,000 will be for new construction $8,000,000 for munitions reserve, $2,000,000 for aviation and the balance of the total appropriation will go toward continuing the departmental expenses.

Building Program Recommended. The building program to be recommended for the five years period as follows:

For 1917, authorized in 1915—two dreadnoughts $15,560,000; two battle cruisers, $11,158,000; three scout cruisers, $6,900,000; fifteen destroyers, $10,500,000; five fleet submarines, $4,425,000; twenty five coast submarines, $5,750,000; two gunboats, $760,000; one hospital ship, $1,250,000; one fuel oil ship, $700,000. Total $57,007,000. (Only part of total cost of vessels appropriated the first year.)

For 1918—Two dreadnoughts, $26,580,000; continuing work on two battle cruisers, $11,921,000; one scout cruiser, $6,350,000; ten destroyers, $16,000,000; four fleet submarines, $5,575,000; fifteen coast submarines, $13,950,000; one gunboat, $1,140,000.

Continuing work on hospital ship, $1,200,000; continuing work on fuel ship, $665,250. Total $84,273,750.

For 1919—Two dreadnoughts, $37,600,000; one battle cruiser, $17,500,000; two scout cruisers, $10,000,000; five destroyers, $10,000,000; two fleet submarines, $5,437,500; fifteen coast submarines, $9,750,000; completing gunboats, $380,000. Total, $90,767,500.

For 1920—Two dreadnoughts, $37,600,000; two battle cruisers, $17,118,500; two scout cruisers, $8,650,000; ten destroyers, $10,300,000; two fleet submarines, $4,215,000; fifteen coast submarines, $9,750,000; one ammunition ship, $799,587; one fuel oil ship, $700,000. Total, $89,133,087.

For 1921—Two dreadnoughts, $37,600,000; one battle cruiser, $23,430,000; two scout cruisers, $10,000,000; ten destroyers, $12,600,000; two fleet submarines, $2,400,000; fifteen coast submarines, $9,750,000; one gunboat, $380,000; one ammunition ship, $1,766,000; completing fuel ship, $655,250; one repair ship, $1,750,000. Total, $101,786,750.

The $6,000,000 aviation appropriation would be divided $2,000,000 for the first year and $1,000,000 for each year thereafter.

The reserve munition program would be divided $8,000,000 the first, $5,000,000 a year for three succeeding years and $2,000,000 for the fifth year.

MAN GOT WHAT WAS COMING TO HIM

A domestic comedy, this is said advisedly, for it was more of a tragedy, was staged in the rear of the court house Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock. The man was over six feet tall and the woman was a meek looking individual. She had a small girl with her. The man was much the worse for drinking bootlegging whiskey. Evidently the woman was trying to get the man to go home. He demurred. He was standing with his feet against the stone curbing that borders the walk about the court house. Suddenly the woman lost her temper and gave the man a shove. He made a fall over the curbing that would do credit to a Charlie Chaplin fall in the movies. After he got on his feet he accompanied the woman down the street. Evidently he thought discretion the better part of valor for he made no attempt to even up matters. It is such incidents as this that makes the average citizen long for a rock pile where such creatures could be put to work at hard labor and their wages turned over to the wife.

Some Topics of the Farm

A Morgan county farmer yesterday remarked that he wondered why some progressive agriculturist had not tried the experiment of oiling the barn lot to prevent mud. Doubtless this idea will be tested on many a barn lot. It sounds sensible. Many a farmer goes to considerable expense to pave his feed lot and other places around the buildings just to prevent the mud. The oiling of the road has been astonishingly effective in this county in preventing mud and keeping a dry even surface. The barn lot or the feed lot is of small area; the owner could well afford more expense upon it to oil it thoroughly and repeatedly than would be practical for the road. Many a lot has good surface drainage, or such drainage could be provided. It is one of the most satisfactory improvements on the farm to have the lots about the farm dry and even and clean where the feeding and chores have to be done two or three times each day of the year. Certainly the inconvenience of the oily surface and the tracking from it could be put up with or overcome for a few days if the result is to be a clean lot for the season. It pays and pays well to have the lots, but if practically the same effect can be secured for a fraction of the price by applying oil—who is going to try it and prove out the results?

The bureau of animal husbandry Monday lifted the quarantine lid on eighteen counties in this state, placing in free area Pike, Morgan, Sangamon, Dewitt, Platt, Champaign, Vermillion, Scott, Greene, Christian, Shelby, Macon, Moultrie, Douglas, Coles, Cumberland, Clark and Edgar counties. This action raises the southern boundary of the restricted district, many miles. There has been no disease in the released counties since the outbreak last fall. They were put in the restricted area recently as a matter of safety. Cases have been rare of late in the original disease infected spots. Illinois is being cleaned up.

While motor vehicles are being used to a great extent, the magnitude of the European conflict, is calling for sacrifices of horses that must affect the supply for many years to come. Records of previous wars show that at least 100 horses are required for every 300 men in an army, and that at least forty per cent of the war-drafted horses have to be replaced at the end of the conflict. If this percentage of horses is being used in the present war, the aggregate shortage must run into millions. A prominent agricultural paper asserts that for 5 years after the war France, Germany, Holland, Austria, Belgium and England will have to import horses in large quantities. With this demand in prospect, it is hardly necessary to point out to the horse breeder where his opportunity lies at the present moment. Anyone at all familiar with the country knows the advantages of western Canada as a horse producing territory. The best class of horse fadders is easily and cheaply produced; the climate is favorable, water is good, and the price of the land enables the farmer to raise horses at a lower cost than in other countries. Already some of the largest and finest droves of pure-bred horses on the American continent are to be found in western Canada, and the fore-sighted settler is steadily increasing the quantity and improving the quality of his horse flesh.

It is somewhat doubtful whether the grinding of corn for some classes of livestock is worth the labor and expense involved, says Charles I. Bray of the Colorado Agricultural college. Tests conducted for ten years at the Wisconsin experimental station showed an average increase grinding corn for hogs. The results for individual years ranged from 11 per cent loss to 18 per cent gain. The Iowa station has also done considerable work in testing various methods of preparing corn for hogs, and found that while grinding showed a slight increase in the feeding value for the older hogs, such gains did not begin to pay the cost of shelling and grinding. Soaked shelled corn showed to much better advantage than the corn meal and also proved somewhat better than the dry ear corn. It was a question however, whether the differences in feeding value paid for the labor of shelling and soaking. It is advisable to grind small hard grains, as kaffir, milo, barley, rye or sorghum seed as otherwise a large proportion of the feed may not be digested. Ground oats for horses have not shown any great advantage over whole oats, except in the case of horses that are very hard worked, or have defective teeth. Grinding oats for hogs, however, will increase their feeding value from 20 to 30 per cent, since the hog is not able to digest the whole grain to advantage. As much as 25 per cent of the whole corn may remain undigested when fed to cattle. Unless hogs follow the cattle in the feed lot, it is therefore desirable to grind the corn to prevent this waste. Sheep will handle whole grain to much better advantage.

That the use of manure as a top dressing in preparing land for wheat increases the yield materially has been shown by experiments made by the department of agronomy in the Kansas State Agricultural college. These experiments cover a period of five years. Two fields on the agronomy farm are used continuously for growing wheat. These fields have the same kinds of soil, are always plowed and cultivated in the same way, and are seeded at the same rate and time. One field, however, receives two and one-half tons of barn yard manure each year as a top dressing, while the other receives no manure whatever. The first yield was obtained from these fields in 1911, when the manured field made a yield of 29.29 bushels an acre and the unmanured a yield of 25.84 bushels an acre, showing an increase of 3.55 bushels an acre through the use of manure. This difference was not so great as during later years, because the greatest increases in yield of wheat from manure does not come the first season after application. In 1912 the yield was low because of poor wheat conditions. The yield from the manured field was only 6.68 bushels an acre, while the unmanured tract yielded but 5.68 bushels. A noticeable factor in these figures is that: as the yield decreased the effect of the manure also decreased. This indicates that during a poor season for wheat the effect of manure will be less than in a favorable season. In 1913, 1914 and 1915 the increase resulting from the use of manure became more pronounced, ranging from six to nearly eleven bushels. This marked difference is no doubt due to a number of causes. The field which had received no manure is becoming less productive, while the one receiving manure is apparently becoming more productive and the cumulative effect of the manure is becoming more noticeable. "The average result for a period of five years proves beyond a doubt that the use of manure as a top dressing on wheat is a most profitable practice," says R. A. Throckmorton, expert in soils. "The average yield for the unmanured field was 17.20 bushels an acre, while the manured field yielded 23.47 bushels an acre, or an average increase for five years of 6.27 bushels an acre, due to the annual application of two and one-half tons of manure applied during the winter as a top dressing."

among them. Lincoln's last order for a pardon and a copy of the Emancipation Proclamation, signed by Lincoln and Seward, are other desirable items. In a letter by Mrs. Lincoln she denies a report that she was to marry again. Other relics are a lock of hair, a gold watch key and cane and umbrella handles owned by him; an inkstand used in his Springfield office; part of the coat he was wearing when shot; a gold ring of his with a secret compartment containing a lock of hair. There is also in the collection the Lincoln-Bronner rifle owned jointly by Lincoln and Henry Bronner, and used by them in their hunting excursions until 1830.

TO AUCTION LINCOLN RELICS.

New York, Oct. 19.—The largest collection of printed material about Abraham Lincoln ever offered for sale was put on exhibition today at the Anderson Galleries. It is Part I of the library of John E. Burton of Milwaukee, and will be sold on the afternoons of October 25 and 29. There are in the collection nearly all the biographies of Lincoln, several in foreign languages; hundreds of sermons eulogies and memorial addresses, some of which are unknown to bibliographers; many portraits, relics and medals, and a great quantity of miscellaneous matter. The only known copy of the pamphlets entitled "Reasons Against the Renomination of Abraham Lincoln," is on local merchants Tuesday.

When I have ceased to rant and rave, and all my early days are spent, I pray you place not on my grave a large and gaudy monument. All ostentation doubly vain, when on this world we've closed our eyes; give me a slab, with legend plain: "Beneath this board your uncle lies". For if I've cut some grass on earth, I'll need no marble to proclaim the story of my sterling worth, or to perpetuate my fame. And if I am a false alarm, no worth h the room I occupy, no towering shaft can add a charm to my bum record, when I die. How foolish look the gents who sleep beneath all kinds of sculptured rocks, who were considered passing cheap, before we placed each in his box. How foolish is all such parade, such pomp amid the graveyard gorse! A hundred dollar saddle laid upon a fifteen-dollar horse! When I have jumped this mundane realm, and journeyed o'er the silent sea, a three-foot slab of slippery elm is plenty good enough for me.

THREE EYE LEAGUE DECIDES TENTATIVELY UPON A CIRCUIT

Goes Back to Eight Clubs Instead of Seven by the Addition of Rock Island.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The Indiana-Illinois-Iowa League at its annual meeting here today decided tentatively upon a circuit for 1916, going back to eight clubs instead of seven by the addition of Rock Island, which succeeds to the place given up by Decatur. Definite decision on the make-up of the league will be made at a meeting to be held in Moline the first week in December.

An important feature of the meeting was the raising of the guaranty by each club from $500 to $1,000. The clubs will be required to provide this guaranty at the Moline session when the question of Bloomington's remaining in the league will be settled.

There was some discussion of the salary limit but aside from informal declarations by some club owners for its rigid enforcement no one proposed it's being raised or lowered and it remains at $1,800 a month. No jurisdictional quarrel over the Rock Island rights are expected. It was said and there will be no hitch in its joining the league. The Rock Island club plans to have as its president, John J. Scott, city attorney; as vice-president, Dr. Eli Bradford; and as secretary, Oscar Lillit.

COACHING STAFF INCREASED

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 19.—The coaching staff of the West Point football team was increased to ten today with the arrival of Captain Ernest Graves of the corps of engineers of the army.

Captain Graves has coached the line men on army eleven for five years. Military drill interfered with the practice of the eleven this afternoon but the squad worked out later in the riding hall under electric lights.

SOME NEW SAFETY

FIRST IDEAS.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 19.—The convention of the Safety First federation of America, which meets here today, will consider an interesting report of the Transportation committee, outlining its ideas of the policies and activities for the year. Here are some of the suggestions:

The near-side stop for street cars, with the recommendation that the committee encourage municipal ordinance to effect same.

Suitable regulations for the operation of jitney buses, under municipal and state laws.

Designation of safety zones and cross walks for the use of pedestrians.

Educating the public to cross the street at the regular crossings and urging the centralization of authority with the Police Department for directing pedestrian travel.

The exclusive use of siren whistles on police and fire vehicles.

A standard form for reporting accidents by municipalities.

The elimination of glaring head and side lights upon motor vehicles.

Steps on all horse-drawn vehicles and motor trucks to be eliminated.

The standardization of hand signals by traffic officers.

A nation-wide educational campaign relative to the dangers at grade crossings and trespassing on railroad property.

FILLING SILOS AT STATE

SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Thomas Allen, the man who secured the contract for filling the silos at the State School for the Deaf, is hard at work carrying out his contract. He has to haul the corn about two miles and for that purpose has a force of thirteen teams, four cutters, two loaders, two unloaders and two feeders at the machine. The silos are supposed to hold 180 tons each and are of vitrified brick and fine structures for the purpose of storing and preserving feed.

Mr. Allen had the contract at $5.49 a ton weighed as the corn is hauled to the machine to be cut. He says the one frost we had a few days ago did much damage. It will take about two and three-fourths days or possibly three to fill a silo. His corn is very good for the purpose, about mature enough and not too much so. It is a singular fact that corn stalks with corn on them will weigh far less after a frost such as we have had than before, which will be a handicap for Mr. Allen who is an industrious, hard working man, honorable in his dealings and well liked where he is known.

He calculates that the corn fields he is stripping would yield from 50 to 70 bushels to the acre if the corn were husked. The state is surely getting a fine article of feed. Mr. Allen may be depended on to fill the silos as nearly according to contract as possible.

BUFFALO BILL HITS

TRAIL FOR WILD GAME

Cody, Wyo., Oct. 19.—A unique hunting party, headed by Buffalo Bill the famous old scout and showman, will leave here tomorrow for a great hunt in the wilds of this state. Col. Cody will be accompanied by many famous hunters, and the party will be three weeks on the trails. It is said that this trip marks the last trip of the veteran hunter and scout into his beloved mountains. He will be seventy years old in February next, and has led an interesting and active life for over half a century.

R. W. Megginson, of the Woodson neighborhood, came to the city yesterday in his Ford runabout.

UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION

The moment "Pape's Diapiesin" reaches the stomach all distress goes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Diapiesin, get this down: Pape's Diapiesin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Pape's Diapiesin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructation of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder. —Adv.

WOMEN WORKERS IN FOREIGN MISSIONS

Convention of Jacksonville District Recently Held at Ashland.

The thirty-first annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Jacksonville district, held at Ashland, Oct. 13 and 14, opened its session at three p. m. with singing one of the grand old hymns. Mrs. M. B. Keplinger, president of the district in the chair. Devotions were led by Mrs. J. L. Cosner, of Virginia. She read a portion of God's word and then offered an earnest petition to the throne of grace.

Mrs. J. E. Artz then in behalf of the Ashland Centenary auxiliaries welcomed the visitors and Mrs. C. S. McCollom of Murrayville in a carefully and well prepared address responded to the words of greeting.

Miss Mary Larmann of Ashland then sang a solo which was appreciated and enjoyed by all who heard it.

In the absence of Miss Elizabeth Thomley, Miss Myra Beggs took charge of the discussion of Literature and she called upon Mrs. Edwards to talk for a few minutes upon the topic, "Why Read the Friend?" Mrs. Edwin Beggs upon the study book, and Mrs. Brownback on the Mystery Box. An informal discussion upon missionary literature followed and in which several persons took part.

The report of Mrs. Kettle, the mite box superintendent, was then read. She reported Grace church of Jacksonville in the lead with $50 mite box money. Ashland was second with $27.79. The largest collection in any one box was $15 found in an Ashland box. She reported 595 boxes in use, an increase of 56 boxes and a total offering of $277.93.

Motion was carried and a collection taken which amounted to $2.18 to pay for flowers and Mrs. Robert Anderson was asked to pay for the flowers and turn over the remainder of collection to the district treasurer.

The president then introduced Mrs. Beggs, the entertaining president, and Mrs. Walbaum, the chairman of the entertainment committee, and they in turn favored the audience with a few words of greeting.

Following the roll call Mrs. Dohm gave her report of the year's work as corresponding secretary. It was her opinion that Jacksonville district needed a shaking up. Mothers Tell of Mother's Friend

Experience is or should be our best teacher. Women who have obeyed the highest and noblest of all sacrifices, the struggle for the life of others, should have a better idea of helpful influence than those who theorize from observation.

At any rate when a prospective grandmother urges her daughter to do as she did—to use "Mother's Friend," there is ample reason to believe it the right kind of advice.

"Mother's Friend" is an external application for expectant mothers. Its purpose is to furnish pliancy to the muscles, to take away the strain on the cords and ligaments, to relieve the tension of nerves and tendons so apt to provoke or aggravate nausea, morning sickness, twitches of the limbs and so on.

Although, in the nature of things, a woman would use "Mother's Friend" but rarely, yet so effective has it been found that this splendid remedy is on sale in most drug stores throughout the United States. It has been prepared by Bradford Regulator Co., 106 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and advertised by us for over forty years. This is a fine record for such a special remedy and the grateful letters received to-day are just as appreciative as were those of years ago notwithstanding that methods are supposed to have greatly advanced. Ask at the drug store for a bottle of "Mother's Friend." It is worth while.

What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

Dandruff Surely Destroys The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will steal your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

SENTIMENT REGARDING WHEAT IS ALMOST EVENLY DIVIDED

Scarcity of Arrivals in Chicago Has a Tendency to Check the Wheat Bears There.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Bullish effects of the immense receipts of wheat in the northwest were nearly offset here today by the absence of any great accumulation of stocks there or elsewhere. The market closed nervous, a shade to be lower, with December at $1.06 3/4 and May at $1.07 1/2. Corn finished 1/4c to 1/2c down. Oats off 1/4c. Provisions showed losses of 10c to 55c.

Sentiment regarding wheat appeared to be almost evenly divided. At first the selling side of market was in favor on account of a continuance of heavy arrivals at Winnipeg, Minneapolis and Duluth with prospects that the big movement in that section would hold out for an indefinite time. Later however, the view was popular that the plethora of supplies in the northwest had been already discounted fairly well.

Scarcity of arrivals in Chicago had a tendency to check the wheat bears here. Only 70 cars were received.

Provisions declined sharply with hogs. Packers were buyers but not until the break had become unusually wide.

REPORT OF THE BOYS
STATE FAIR SCHOOL
By Roy C. Clark.

On Saturday, Sept. 18, 1915, the sixth annual session of the Boys State Fair School opened. The enrollment was nearly 300 representing the 102 counties of Illinois.

The camp was situated at the southwest corner of the fair grounds near the automobile gate. It consisted of about 50 sleeping tents and 6 mess tents. Several for officers and class purposes and one large assembly tent. Each sleeping apartment was supplied with cots, blankets and lights.

The school was under the management of Principal John Calvin Hanna with two assistants, Mr. Gilpin and Mr. Nolan. There was also an assistant superintendent from each district who had supervision over the boys from his division. Capt. Simmona with two aides was present to drill and exercise the boys.

The instructors were furnished by the University of Illinois. They were Prof. W. E. Jones, Dairy Husbandry; Marvin E. Jahr, Rope Tying; H. A. Winter, Corn Judging; Wm. A. Smith, Stock Judging; Daniel A. Barto, Poultry; A. W. Nolan, Horticulture.

Saturday morning was given over to registration, assignment of classes etc. The first address was given Saturday afternoon by Prof. Fred H. Rankin on the "Opportunities of Agriculture." He spoke of the relative importance of farming now and a century ago; the superior position of the farmer; the uplifting effect of the possession of land and the difficulty of organizing farmers. He especially emphasized the necessity of more education at one of the essentials to successful farming.

On Saturday evening we marched to the Woman's building, where a royal reception was given by the girls domestic science school.

Dr. John Dill Robertson gave a splendid lecture Sunday morning on "The Battle of the Cells." He gave a general outline of the growth and cause of the disease germs which produce such maladies as tuberculosis, typhoid, diptheria, cholera, pneumonia and the like. He closed with a message of advice on the proper care of the health. Dr. Robertson was one of the favorite speakers of the week.

Tues. David Felmley of the State Normal University gave the address at the evening vespers. His text

LIVED IN SAME
TOWN 43 YEARS

Charles Troop, of Bissell, Ill., Regains Health and Strength Through Tanlac.

PRAISES MEDICINE

Another testimonial which bespeaks the merits of Tanlac, the "Master Medicine" now being introduced in Jacksonville, is the statement which was made last Monday by Charles Troop, a miner, who has resided in the town of Bissell, Ill., for the past forty years and who is well known in that community. Mr. Troop was highly pleased with the results which he had obtained from the use of Tanlac, and in regard to his improvement had the following to say:

"Before I began taking Tanlac, I was a pretty sick man. I have not felt well for a long time, and though I was able to go about my work, I felt weak and all tired out. My stomach was all out of order and I did not care for anything to eat. At night I was restless and could not sleep. When I would get up in the morning, I would feel just as tired as if I had not been to bed at all. I tried several remedies to see if I could not regain some of my lost strength but none of them seemed to do me any real good. I was speaking to a friend of mine about my condition recently and he asked me if I had tried Tanlac. He said that he had heard it was helping people who were in the same fix that I was, so I came to Springfield and bought a bottle.

"I was surprised at the change that took place in my condition. I want to tell you that Tanlac is alright, it will help everyone as it has helped me. Since taking the medicine I feel a whole lot better in several ways. I sleep better at night and feel like another person when I get up in the morning. My appetite is improving every day and I am always glad when the dinner bell rings. The old tired and worn-out feelings which was with me so long has gone away and I seem to have new strength and energy with which to go about my work. Tanlac is a fine medicine, and I am sure it will help anyone who will give it a fair trial."

Tanlac, the "Master Medicine," is now being sold in Jacksonville at the well known drug store of Coover & Shreve.—Adv.

OUCH! MY BACK! RUB
LUMBAGO PAIN AWAY

Rub Backache Away With Small Trial Bottle of Old "St. Jacob's Oil."

When your back is sore and lame or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" at any drug store, pour a little in your hand and rub it right on your aching back, and by the time you count fifty, the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints.—Adv.

was "Seest Thou a Man Diligent in Business, He Shall Stand Before Kings". He told us that nearly all great men were born poor; worked for everything they got, and virtually made themselves. However, with the accession of wealth they did not give themselves over to ease and luxury. History has proven the fate of every people that does this, hence it should be our purpose to avoid it. Idleness means decay, and decay spells downfall and ruin.

The first classes were called Monday morning at 8:30. I took my place in the Stock Judging class. Since there were no exhibits of the cloven hoofed animals (owing to flood and mouth disease) the instructors were somewhat handicapped. The first lesson was chiefly on stock feeding. The cost of feed has trebled in the last ten years. Hence, we can readily see the importance of studying this proposition. The most successful feeder is the one who can produce and keep the animal in the best condition for the least cost. We have seen experiments illustrating the relative value of certain feeds.

We found, for instance that in the muscle producing stage, alfalfa is an ideal feed for cattle.

Prof. Green gave an interesting lecture on "What Constitutes Success". There are three necessary traits one must have to be successful, promptness, stick-to-itiveness, and service. He urged having a special purpose in life and working toward that.

On Tuesday morning Prof. Smith again took charge of the stock judging class.

The judging of live stock is a comparison of certain animals with the ideal of that class or with each other. It is important for many reasons. It helps to put a value on your animals, enables you to discriminate against inferior animals in securing breeders, and should you intend to be a professional, it would prove of financial value. The breeder, the feeder, and the butcher each put requirements on cattle. We gave our attention to the last only, for all beef cattle ultimately reach him. As to form they should be solid, compact and strictly meat producing in shape. The condition should be such that a great amount of meat may be in high priced cuts.

At 10:45 Tuesday, E. E. Haskins gave the first of a series of lectures on soils and their treatment. Many people have the idea that the most successful farmers live on rich land; but it is quite the opposite. All crops are grown from the same materials but all soils do not contain these substances in the same quantities, hence the variation in yield. The ten essential crop foods are carbon, oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, calcium, magnesium, sulphur and iron.

On Tuesday afternoon Hon. H. J. Tice spoke to us on the good roads question. He gave interesting facts and figures on costs of transportation and means by which roads could be bettered at reasonable cost.

After the lecture on Tuesday afternoon, the delegates from the twentieth district in company with their superintendent, Mr. Sellers, visited the noted spots in Springfield, namely, Lincoln's monument and home, Supreme Court building, State House and Arsenal. We arrived at camp in time for mess, feeling much impressed with our hunger as well as the places we had visited.

On Wednesday morning, instead of having a class lecture, we were allowed to view the judging of horses in the Coliseum.

Mr. Haskins gave the next lecture, the second in his series on "Legumes and Limestone Legumes", which are valuable for one reason, because they furnish the soil with organic matter. This serves to keep the soil loose, helps it to retain and absorb moisture, as well as to furnish the soil with plant food. The use of limestone is to supply plant food and sweeten the soil.

Mayor Thompson of Chicago then gave us a short address. He told us briefly of what his city was doing to keep up the health of its people; also of children's playgrounds which originated in that city.

In the afternoon the lecture period was shared by two speakers, Prof. R. E. Hieronymus, community adviser of the University of Illinois, and Dr. Joseph Hughes, a noted veterinarian. The former spoke briefly on community playgrounds, health and the like.

Dr. Hughes gave us a general idea of the veterinary work, the study of it, divisions, and splendid financial opportunity in it for the young man. R. E. Snapp took charge of the stock judging class on Thursday morning. There are four classes of beef cattle; the strictly beef, butcher stock, cutters and canners, and stockers and feeders. The beef type consists chiefly of steers. There are five grades, prime, choice, good, medium and common. The butcher stock consists chiefly of heifers, cows and bulls. A cutter is an animal the carcass of which is not all suitable for fresh meat. A canner is one used for canning purposes only. The chief difference between stockers and feeders is, that the former are younger and may be on roughage before fattening.

Gov. Dunne and his staff paid a visit to the school on Thursday morning. He gave a short address on the standing of Illinois among her sister states. Illinois is first in valuation of land, and production of grains, second in wealth. Yet in yield per acre she stands very low. In nearly every grain yield per acre, Illinois is surpassed by her neighbors of similar climate. The governor especially urged the necessity of placing this state at the head in that particular case, as well as in the other things.

Following the usual custom, the photographs of the school were taken after the governor's address.

Mr. Haskins gave the last of his lectures immediately following the departure of the governor. The time was taken up with answering questions and making experiments. The test for limestone is made by applying muriatic acid to soil. If a bubbling or sizzling is noticed, limestone is present. The acidity test is made by pressing a piece of blue litmus paper between two pieces of moist earth. If the paper becomes red, acid is present.

At 1:45 we marched to the grandstand in review before the governor and his staff.

At the class tour on Friday morning, R. E. Snapp, instructor in stock judging, gave us the principles concerned in the make-up of the skeleton of the horse. For example, the forearm should be long, because it is the bone that determines the length of the stride.

A. B. Dooner gave the next lecture. His subject was floriculture or the study of flowers. He told us of the immensity and growth of the greenhouse industry and their valuations in the U. S.; the worth of flowers and some of the best ones for the amateur grower.

Dean Eugene Davenport of the University of Illinois gave an excellent address in the afternoon. He showed us the need of a choice of occupation; the necessary preparation for it; and the advantages and disadvantages of a farmer's life. In fact, it was literally "chuck full" of good advice to the young man. No more fitting address could have brought to a close this splendid school. I think it should be the aim of every boy at sometime to attend this school for it will be an experience he will never regret or forget.

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD
"SYRUP OF FIGS" IF
TONGUE IS COATED

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, clean little liver and bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mothers! See if the tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again. Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits. Sold here. Get the genuine made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

MARKET LETTERS

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET. Chicago, Oct. 18—Oliver S. Green with Walter Bros., Union Stock Yards, Chicago, reports the estimated receipts for Monday, Oct. 18th: Cattle, 14,000; hogs, 24,000; sheep, 20,000.

With around 9,000 native cattle and 5,000 western rangers gave the trade a better tone. Fair to choice steers generally 10 to 15c up from the low point last week, with spots showing more gain. Common and medium grassers steady to 15c higher than last Friday. Only meager showing of prime grades. Yearlings sold at 10:50. Buyers report a big beef stock, and that accounted for a slow and peddling deal. The 5,000 rangers sold 10 to 15c higher.

Some hogs 5c higher than Saturday, bulk about steady. Some mixed packers and grassy lots weak. Small packers good buyers after a slow start. Prime grades scarce.

Sheep and lambs uneven from the start. Quality fairly good. Native lambs early 10 to 15c lower. Late sales steady. Sheep and yearlings unchanged. Montana wethers make 7c. Best range lambs make 8.90.

The cream of the steer crop sold readily. On the good to choice steers it was a 10 to 15c advance, and 15 to 25c up from Friday's low range. Choice grades scarce and in shorter supply than any Monday or Wednesday for many weeks. There was a keen demand for prime yearlings and two cars average weight 10:50. Fourteen heavy weight steers averaging 1514 at 10:40, with 51 weighing 1591 at 10:40, with several loads of different weights 10 to 10:25, but it was a short showing above 9:75. A generous quote of short feds $8.25 to 8.75, and decent to pretty good. The bulk grassers of the fattest sorts 8.25 to 7.75.

The run of western rangers fell 2,000 below popular estimates at the close of last week. Values advanced 10 to 15c with quality kind 15 to 25c higher. A three loads strong of the Keogh steers from North Dakota averaging 1394 at 8.60. Most of the rangers were Texas bred stuff, at 7.15 to 7.60, and the Mexican bred stuff largely at 7c and below. 6,000 rangers a week ago and 10,000 two weeks ago.

Butcher cows, 4.50 to 7.25. Heifers, 4.40 to 8.25.

Prime heifers, 9.25 to 9.50. Bulls, 4.25 to 6.75.

Canners and cutters, 3.60 to 4.40. Calves common to good vealers, 3.50 to 10.50.

Choice to prime vealers 10.75 to 11.50.

Hog quotations: Mixed packing, 8.05 to 8.45. Medium and butchers, 8.50 to 8.70.

Poor to good heavy packing, 8.00 to 8.35. Rough heavy packing, 7.60 to 7.95. Select packing and shipping, 8.40 to 8.95.

Light weights, 7.85 to 8.60. Pigs and throughouts, 3.00 to 7.75. Sheep quotations: Native ewes reached 6.35, with but few offerings above. Culls, 3.00 to 4.75. Yearlings mainly, 7.00. Some yearlings reached, 7.35. Dakota lambs, 8.90. Fed westerns, 8.25. Native ewes, 2.50 to 6.35. Western ewes, 5.00 to 6.35. Native yearlings, 6.50 to 7.50. Bucks, 3.50 to 5.00. Native lambs, 7.00 to 8.75.

KANSAS CITY MARKET.

—Cattle receipts were slightly smaller last week, but stocker and feeder purchases amounted to practically the same as in the previous week, 1,181 head. Prices on all but the better grades declined 15 to 25 cents during the week, and there was some loss on feeders after Wednesday, killers being weak bidders the last half of the week. The run today is 21,000 head, containing a wide representation and prices are steady and active. A large number of buyers are in the yards, and the feeling prevails that the run will not only drop down balance of this week, but that the days of heavy runs are about over for this year. Late last week buyers got a good kind of feign: weighing 1,100 to 1,150 pounds as low as $6.75, good backs and healthy but carrying light flesh. Fancy light weight short-horn feeders sold at $6.75 to $7.00. Choice Southern stockers $7.25, selected White faces $7.50. Good little stockers sold around $6.75, and fair quality kinds, all good color, $6 to $6.50. Well bred springers sell around $6.00, choice yearlings heifers $6.50, selected shorthorn calves $7.75, choice white faces, $8.25 to $8.75, choice thin neck bulls $5.50 to $5.75. The receipts today included more high class range cattle than usual, panhandle owners heretofore showing a predilection to winter their cattle. A string of extra choice white face yearlings sold at $8.25 and other high class yearlings and two sold at $7.75 to $8, some 800 pound two year old Colorados at $7.70. A feature this year, especially among the older shippers from Colorado and the panhandle is higher class cattle, the best bred bulls obtainable being used in their herds constantly. However, the run today includes the usual quota of medium and low grade stock cattle, something for every shade of the demand. Oklahoma is buying medium and low grade stock cattle heavily here, as these cattle can be bought cheaper on the market than on the range this year. Feeding lambs are in fair supply, weights above 50 pounds selling at $8 to $8.20, some choice light Mexicans today at $8.35, a string of good young Wyoming breeding ewes today at $6.50, others $5.50 to $6, feeding ewes $4.80 to $5, shipments to the country last week 19,545 head. Native stock hogs are selling up to $8.50, guaranteed against cholera, shipments last week 545 head.

REV. L. R. PATMONT WILL BE TRIED FOR ARSON

Newark, N. J., Oct. 19.—Rev. Louis R. Patmont, who has figured in a divorce and alleged kidnapping in the west during the past year will be called to trial here tomorrow for arson. He is charged with having set the fire which burned the Polish Christian church in this city in 1913, while he was pastor here. In November last Patmont obtained a divorce in Portage county, Wisconsin. His wife was a Newark woman. She claimed to have no knowledge of the divorce proceedings until after the case was decided. Patmont, secured custody of their two children, Ruth and Louis.

Revenge for his divorce tactics is said to have prompted the preacher's wife to give the authorities the information on which he was arrested for arson. Patmont was pastor of the Polish Christian church here for some time previous to the fire. The blaze was of suspicious origin, and later the authorities received information to the effect that it had been purposely burned for the insurance. The former minister was accused of planning the crime and was held in $1,500 bail. Patmont has been living in the west, and his parents are said to be living in Milwaukee.

Some time ago Patmont figured as the victim of a "kidnapping" case that was never cleared up. The alleged kidnapping was said to have occurred at Westville, Ill., whence Patmont claimed he was taken in a red automobile to Columbia, Ill., where he was found. The Illinois authorities could find no evidence of the alleged kidnapping sufficient to justify arrests. Later Patmont disappeared mysteriously from Detroit, and was found a month afterward in Wisconsin. He said he had been warned to get out of Detroit under threat of being killed.

On information supplied by Patmont's divorced wife, an indictment was returned against him last January, charging Patmont with conspiracy to burn the Newark church.

Martin Hohman, Jr., and Miss Anna Ludwig wed in Springfield Wednesday of State Fair Season.

Miss Anna Ludwig and Martin Hohman, Jr., of Alexander, were married in Springfield Wednesday, Sept. 22, and though for some time the wedding was kept secret by the young people, rumor of the event has of late been general and announcement of the marriage will bring no great surprise to friends of the bride and groom. THE AGE OF YOUTH

This is the Age of Youth. Men of all ages are living in closer relationship. You hear very little of old fashioned ideas. Fathers are thinking as their sons: they are playing the same games—they are DRESSING more alike.

That is why Society Brand Clothes are so popular now. They show a dignified conservative touch of YOUTHFULNESS. They make men look as young as they OUGHT to look today. They make men of 40 look 35 instead of 45, as was usual. Fads and extremes are abhorred. Yet Society Brand Models lead in exclusiveness. They are widely copied—but no other makers seem able to get their incomparable effects.

These clothes are too slowly and too carefully made—the output is too limited to sell to every store in a city. So there is never more than one merchant in a town who can offer these designs. But that merchant is carefully selected.

The Broadway, here pictured, is an overcoat that young men like for its trim smartness. Double breasted, close fitting—$20 and $25.
